

Fore-Edge Painting & Edge Treatments Workshop

School for Bookbinding Arts at Cat Tail Run Hand Bookbinding

ABOVE: Gilt edge, over a fore-edge painting
BELOW: Book flexed to reveal fore-edge painting

Fore-edge paintings are delightful surprises to find along the page edges of bound books. This art was practiced regularly in the 18th and 19th centuries, with artists such as Watteau crafting delicate paintings hidden from view until such time as the book's pages were properly flexed.

Take our workshop and learn how it is done as well as the history of this worthy art form. Our special system of fore-edge painting does not require particular artistic talent. You are destined for success no matter your artistic level.

BELOW: Fore-edge painting completed by a student in the 2015 session.

Join us in July to learn more about these enchanting book embellishments.

July 28 – 29, 2016

*Thursday
&
Friday*

Cost: $295

www.cattailrun.com

info@cattailrun.com

540-662-2683

REGISTRATION: FORE-EDGE PAINTING & EDGE TREATMENTS WORKSHOP
JULY 28 – 29, 2016 $295

Make check out to Cat Tail Run Hand Bookbinding or call with a credit card number:

Cat Tail Run Hand Bookbinding 2160 Cedar Grove Rd., Winchester, VA 22603 540-662-2683

Name _____
Address _____
e-mail _____ Telephone _____